Part XIII Supplemental Information

Provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9; Part III, lines 1a and 4; Part IV, lines 1b and 2b; Part V, line 4; Part X, line 2; Part XI, lines 2d and 4b; and Part XII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part II, line 9:
The conservation easements are reported in property and equipment on the Balance Sheet.

The facade easement includes a restriction which preserves the entire exterior of the building, including the front, sides, rear, and height of the building and prohibits any change in the exterior of the building which in inconsistent with the historical character of such exterior.

A written agreement was entered into with the donor certifying that the donee organization has the resources to manage the historic preservation property and is committed to do so.

Part III, line 1a:
The Society's collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance, art objects and similar assets that are held for educational, research, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved and cared for; and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections.

The collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the Society's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes.

Part III, line 4:
Cumulatively the artifacts of historic collections, from the decorative arts or everyday wares to the remnants of river and human industry, constitute the foundation of our organization's mission. These tangible ties to the past are the conduit for educators to form a human connection to the concepts taught. They are not static artifacts stuck in a time but remain relevant as we continue to add to the collection to "make history and rivers come alive."

Part V, line 4:
The board has stipulated the allocation of investment income in excess of 5% annual return be added first, to permanently restricted investments, with the excess to operating investments. As it is the society's policy not to spend down the endowment funds, the society believes that the current spending policy, despite occasional adverse market conditions, will allow it to meet its objectives. This is consistent with the society's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment returns.

Part X, Line 2:
Management believes that the Organization has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
